From the Copy of the Proceedings received today, it is seen that the Munb: Council have resolved to hold the election before the end of September. 3 This case is similar to that of the Tanjore Munl Council. The term of office of the existing municipal Councillors has to be extended till at least the end of the current Calendar year, in order to validate the acts of the Madura Munl Council which has been acting without authority from 29th November 1913, the date of expiry of their term, and in order to gain time for a fresh election under Rule 8(c) of the Election Rules the date, 2 months prior to which the list of voters should be published, has to be fixed by Govt, under the powers of Sec. 3 of Act as adapted for this purpose. The Dy Comr may therefore be called upon to fix a date under Rule 8(c) and report it for the approval of Govt.

5. The question of appointing Mr Malhar as Vice President during the period the present Council continues, appears to be desirable, in view of the unanimous approval of the Municipal Council. Mr Malhar has long been in Eden, and by virtue of the position he still recently held, his nomination is bound to be a success, and will be greatly appreciated.

2 The order of extension of term is necessary.

But I am not sure that the action of the Muni Council is correct. I presume that the Special Meeting of 9/1 was called for this particular purpose, and the members elected the Vice President. As the proposed draft says the appt is made under S. 23 (2) a, by Govt, perhaps the Superhogatory procedure adopted may perhaps be ignored, though under Cl. C, a direction of Govt is necessary before any election could be made.

With his letter No.53 dated 12th July, the President, District and Municipal Boards, Kolar District, has submitted, for "perusal and necessary orders as Government deem fit", a copy of the resolution passed by the Kolar Town Municipal Council at a special meeting held on the 5th idem, to the effect that Mr.Malhari Rao, retired Head Master of the Kolar High School, may be appointed as non-official Vice-President of that Council.

2. The Kolar Municipal Council having been constituted in March 1910, the term of office of the existing Councillors (including Mr. Malhari Rao) expired in March 1913. It is therefore necessary to extend their term of office till at least the end of the current calendar year in order to validate the acts of the Council which has been acting without authority from then.

3. Two drafts have accordingly been put up, one extending, with effect from the 30th March 1913, the term of the Councillors until the end of December 1913 pending prompt action by the Deputy Commissioner to reconstitute the Council, and the other notifying the appointment of Mr. Malhari Rao as Vice-President of the Kolar Municipal Council with effect from 1st September 1913 up to the end of his term of office.

4. These drafts have received the approval of the Second Councillor.

particular purpose and that the members elected the Vice President. He adds that, as, however, the proposed draft says that the appointment is made under section 23(2)a, by Government, the supererogatory procedure adopted may perhaps be ignored, though, under clause C, a direction of Government is necessary before any election could be made

6. The two drafts put up may be approved.

7. In view of the facts that the proposal has received the unanimous approval of the Council and that Mr. Malhari Rao has long been in Kolar holding a high position, his nomination as Vice-President is likely to be a success.

8. The omission to take necessary timely action in regard to the reconstitution of the Council will be pointed out to the Deputy Commissioner.

The list was published on 5 7 1913, but on the date on which the list was published govt had not determined the date two months before which the list had to be published. Govt have in their order of the 9th inst. specified the date as the 15th Nov 1913 & have directed the Municipality to publish the lists two months before that date. The question now is, whether, without further publication, ~~already made~~ the publication already made on the 5th July can be considered to be sufficient Compliance with the requirements contained in the said rule, inasmuch as more than two months have elapsed between the date of the said publication & the date now fixed by govt. The view that commends itself to me is that if no date at all is fixed by govt. the publication will be of no avail & it should be deemed an illegality with the implied nullification for disobedience but if a date is fixed by govt though after publication but allowing the prescribed Margin of two months then the publication though irregular may be upheld. one test that may be applied is this:— "If the identical question goes before the Civil Court what is the view which the Court would take of the matter?" A clue to the Solution of this question is furnished in Sec 22 (5) of the Municipal Regulation VII of 1906 under which mere error, irregularity or informality not Corruptly Caused in Carrying out the rules made under

She thinks that it does not vitiate the proceedings. I agree with him in this view. The chief object of Govt in issuing the order of the 9th Sept 1913 was to bring home the irregularity to the local authorities. This has now been achieved and as the publication actually made gave 2 months' time for objections, the irregularity may be condoned as a special case & the draft order approved 41 Dy Secy 12/9 Hy
